

Harvey Law Group Sponsors Guyana, Russia Teams at World Rugby Sevens

(Hong Kong – 30th March 2017) Harvey Law Group (HLG), a global law firm, announced today its sponsorship of the Guyana team in the Hong Kong tournament, and the Russia team in both the Hong Kong and Singapore tournaments, of the World Rugby Sevens Series for 2016-2017.

The Guyana team will conduct professional training sessions with children of the local Rugby Club team “The Pirates,” at Discovery Bay’s North Plaza Pitches on 6th April 2017. The team will share their training experience and tips, and promote the core values of rugby – determination, respect, responsibility, national identity, commitment, teamwork and integrity.

“HLG is proud to take part in the World Rugby Sevens Series. This sponsorship not only directly supports the Sevens, but also underpins the importance of physical well-being.” said Jean-François Harvey, Managing Partner of Harvey Law Group.

The “Where the World Comes to Play”-themed Hong Kong Sevens will be held 7-9 April 2017 at the Hong Kong Stadium, in Causeway Bay. The World Rugby Sevens is an annual series of international rugby tournaments featuring national sevens teams. Kicking off with 12 teams at the 3,000-person Hong Kong Football Club in 1976, the series has transformed itself into a three-day international rugby rivalry of 28 teams and over 120,000 spectators.

HLG has been named “Most Outstanding for Immigration Law in Asia” by Acquisition International and the “Immigration Law Firm of the Year” by the IAIR for 2016.
